Artist Statement

To me, photography is a way to slow down.

A meditation.

A way of freeing my mind of thoughts and emotions.

To stop and see more intensely.

Sometimes I feel like I'm seeing a familiar place or a familiar landscape or city scene for the first time.

Or sometimes it's traveling to unfamiliar places with wide eyes and new curiosity. That is why I photograph.

It takes me away from this crazy world.

This is a way of expressing myself with only my camera as my tool.
